Sixth Sunday of Easter

“If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you.” — Jn 14:15-17

The month of May is traditionally dedicated to Our Blessed Mother Mary. Let us continue to seek Mary’s prayers for our diocese and promote devotion to her as Mother of God and the model Christian, especially during this Year of the Rosary.

Sixth SUNDAY OF EASTER
“If you love me you will keep my commandments.” It’s really as simple as that. We are only paying lip service to the Lord if we externally declare ourselves to be Christians but don’t follow through on a life that confirms it.
In our modern culture, we often think of love as a feeling or a kind of devotion. It is thus all too common to separate love from appropriate action. Perhaps we reassure ourselves that we love Jesus because we believe that he is the Son of God and our personal Saviour. But these thoughts—or even any grateful or pleasant feelings that come along with them—are not the fullest manifestation of real love. Rather, as Jesus tells us directly in today’s Gospel, “Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me.”

Now, for those of us who may be asking what exactly these commandments are, it’s helpful to remember Jesus’ response when he was questioned on the subject. “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself” (Mt 22:37-39). These fundamental principles embrace everything that Jesus calls us to do. If we put God first and foremost in our lives, and if we treat our neighbors as we would wish to be treated, then all the rest falls into place. The Ten Commandments, the Beatitudes, and any other fundamental Christian codes of behavior are all summed up here. Indeed, if we truly seek to love Jesus, putting him first and following his ways won’t feel like a burden but rather like a beautiful blessing.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
St. Teresa of Calcutta once said, “Spread love everywhere you go. Let no one ever come to you without leaving happier.” Keeping the commandments of Jesus ultimately means loving as he loves. How do you think people feel after they leave your presence? This is a question worth pondering if we are serious about being disciples. Gentleness and reverence are beautiful charisms to foster as they speak boldly of love. If we truly love God and our brothers and sisters, we will always be gentle with them and treat them with the reverent dignity they deserve, regardless of what they have done. This is the ultimate challenge of discipleship. Committing ourselves today to following Jesus’ commandments and to love as Jesus loves, how can we make those who meet us this week leave us happier and grateful that they have crossed our path?

The St Ann’s Conference of St Vincent de Paul will be participating in a national initiative to support Inuit peoples in Northern Canada. Our parish, along with others in the Niagara area will be assisting the community of Naujaat (pronounced “now-we-ought”). The primary focus of this initiative is food security, as the cost of food in the northern communities can be as high as five times what we pay here. For the rest of this month, any donations that are placed in the Saint Vincent de Paul donation box will be used to support the community of Naujaat. Further information about this project, including a brief video, can be found at http://ssvp.on.ca/socjus/FirstNations_Inuit.php. We thank you for your continued support of the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul.
